

WEEK OF PRAYER FOR CHRISTIAN UNITY JANUARY 18-25, 2019

The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity (or WPCU) has a history of over 100 years, in which Christians around the world have taken part in an octave of prayer for visible Christian unity. By annually observing the WPCU, Christians move toward the fulfillment of Jesus' prayer at the Last Supper "that they all may be one." (cf. John 17:21). The theme of this year's Week is "Justice, Only Justice, You Shall Pursue" (cf. Deuteronomy 16:18-20).

As one way of uniting our prayers to the other Christians around the world that week, Bishop Siegel has granted permission for priests, at their discretion, to use the proper prayers and readings for the Mass "For the Unity of Christians," on Sunday, January 20 (2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time).

From the official website for the WPCU – "Every year Christians across the world gather in prayer for growth in unity. We do this in a world where corruption, greed and injustice bring about inequality and division. Ours is a united prayer in a fractured world: this is powerful. However, as individual Christians and communities, we are often complicit with injustice, and yet we are called together to form a united witness for justice and to be a means of Christ's healing grace for the brokenness of the world."
