

The Key Chanted Dialogues for the Revised Order of Mass

“Every effort should be made to introduce or strengthen as a normative practice the singing of the dialogues between the priest, deacon, or lector and the people. Even the priest with very limited singing ability is capable of chanting The Lord be with you on a single pitch.” Sing to the Lord: Music in Divine Worship, (USCCB) #115a.”

Most of the following dialogues employ the “simple tone” already used by most priests to chant the concluding doxology of the Eucharistic Prayer. The congregation’s response simply “echoes” the invocation. They are “key” because most of them involve a change in the congregation’s response. (“And with your spirit” and “It is right and just.”) Priests (and deacons) are encouraged to use them not only to engage the congregation more fully in “singing the Mass” in addition to “singing during Mass,” but also to assist the people in making the change to the revised translation. Some priests may also choose to chant more extended prayers and other texts, but this is “the place to start.”
