Calendar Notes

- ✘ Ritual Masses – Days on which a proper ritual Mass may not be celebrated does not mean that the particular ritual (Matrimony, Confirmation, etc.) may not be celebrated. It means that it is celebrated in the context of the Mass of the day, using the proper prayers, readings, and liturgical color of the day.
- ✘ Funeral Masses – On those days which a funeral Mass may not be celebrated, one may celebrate the funeral liturgy outside Mass instead.
- ✘ Proper Vigil Prayers and Readings – Some Solemnities noted above and in the ordo have their own proper Vigil prayers/readings which should be used for Masses celebrated the evening before the feast day (as opposed to anticipated Masses which use the prayers/readings of the following day, which is what is done for most Saturday evening Masses).
- ✘ Celebrating Patrons/Titles – The celebration of the title/name of a parish or church should be treated as a Solemnity in that parish, and may be transferred to an adjacent Sunday if that Sunday does not outrank proper Solemnities in the Table of Liturgical Days.
 - Example – Holy Rosary Parish may wish to move their patronal feast day from Wednesday, October 7, to Sunday, October 11, since the Solemnity of the parish patron would take precedent over a Sunday in Ordinary Time.
- ✘ Celebrating the Anniversary of the Dedication of a Church – The anniversary of the dedication of a church is celebrated as a Solemnity in that church.
- ✘ Celebrating the Anniversary of the Dedication of the Cathedral – With the dedication of the renovated Saint Benedict Cathedral on November 6, 2019, the prior dedication date of April 11 is no longer in effect. The 2019-2020 ordos do not reflect this change. The anniversary of the dedication of the cathedral is celebrated as a Solemnity in the cathedral church, and as a Feast for the rest of the diocese.
- ✘ Ember Days – The bishop has not designated specific days as Ember Days for the diocese, so it is a local parish choice on the timing and celebration of these customary seasonal practices.
- ✘ For More Information – This calendar is only intended as a quick reference to local celebrations. For more detailed information, please consult your ordo or contact the Office of Worship.
