Greetings in the Lord!

Last year, we issued our first Vocations Guidebook. The goal was twofold:

First, this guidebook is meant to help organize and distribute information about our men in priestly formation and discernment.

Secondly, we hope this book will help share some statistics and trends about priestly vocations in our recent history.

This year, the goals are similar.

In this Guidebook will also find information about who our seminarians are, what communities have thriving cultures of vocations, where our vocations are coming from, and some helpful programs you may wish to join or support. Read on to meet the men who have heard a call to discern priesthood and who have had the courage to listen. Pray for them. Send them a note. Invite them to a parish event. Hang their picture on your classroom or church wall. Perhaps you might know of someone else who is not in this guidebook who might join them next year.

Please reach out with any questions or requests to support. If you find more helpful information we can add or amend, please let us know!

A GROWING BROTHERHOOD
2022-2023 SEMINARIANS

Please consider writing to these men, hanging their posters on your class or church walls, inviting them to your parish community, and praying for them in your Holy Hour as they discern God’s will.

Saint Catherine of Siena said that when we are our truest selves, we will set the world on fire. Would you like to join us?

After four years of building a brotherhood with SAVIO, the Vocations Office is now offering a similar community for young women.

Named after the virgin Doctor of the Church, Saint Catherine of Siena, "SIENA" gathers like-minded high school and middle school girls together. There is one goal: “to become who you were made to be.”
