November 6—Anniversary of the Dedication of the Cathedral

On November 6 we celebrate the third anniversary of the dedication of Saint Benedict Cathedral. Normally this would be a proper Feast for the diocese, but since November 6 is a Sunday in 2022, the 32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time would take precedence. It would still be very appropriate that weekend to remember in prayer our “mother church,” all who contributed to its beautiful renovation, and all who have prayed for and served our diocese in its walls through the years.

In the cathedral itself, the day remains a Solemnity, supplanting the Ordinary Time Sunday. But no worries—Masses at the cathedral that weekend will still fulfill your obligation!

Honoring Veterans on November 11

Q.: What are some ways we could honor our veterans on or near November 11?

A.: While there is no “official” blessing or prayer that is used to recognize and thank those who have served in the armed forces, there are a few options for this day or the weekend nearest to it:

- ✘ The simplest method is to include a petition in the Prayer of the Faithful at Mass for our veterans;
- ✘ also at Mass, Solemn Blessings #12 and 13 speak of the blessings of peace, and safety from adversity;
- ✘ Chapters 70-71 in the Book of Blessings could be adapted to give thanks for their service;
- ✘ November 11 is also the Memorial of Saint Martin of Tours, patron of soldiers. Perhaps a prayer card or medal of the saint could be blessed and given to veterans this day or the weekend before.

Many thanks to all who have served our country in this way.

World Day of the Poor November 13

The 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time marks the fifth World Day of the Poor, established by Pope Francis in 2016. The theme for 2022 is “Jesus Christ became poor for your sake” (2 Corinthians 8:9). While the prayers and readings for the 33rd Sunday are used for the Mass, it would be appropriate to at least include an intercession that speaks to our preferential option for the poor in our world. You can read the Holy Father’s message for 2022 here. For more information please visit the Holy See’s World Day of the Poor page.

Liturgical Options for Thanksgiving

Q.: What are the liturgical options available for Thanksgiving Day?

A.: There are several options available to us. On the liturgical calendar, November 25 is Thursday of the 34th week in Ordinary Time, as well as the Memorial of Saint Andrew Dũng-Lạc and companions. So the Mass of the day could always be celebrated.

For Thanksgiving, the Roman Missal also provides proper prayers for Masses on Thanksgiving Day, complete with its own proper Preface. These are found in the Proper of Saints at the end of November. The readings may be from the day or could be taken from the section “In Thanksgiving to God,” nos. 943-947 of the Lectionary for Mass (volume IV). These proper prayers and readings may be used at the discretion of the pastor or priest celebrant. In addition, the Book of Blessings provides a blessing of food for Thanksgiving Day, which may be used in or out of Mass. See chapter 58, nos. 1755-1780, for the full order of service.

Of course, every Mass is the greatest celebration of thanksgiving we can hope to offer (the word “Eucharist” coming from the Greek word eucharistia, meaning “thanksgiving”).

December Calendar Notes—Three Days for the BVM

In a span of five days in December, we will have the opportunity celebrate the Blessed Virgin Mary under three distinct titles. In the midst of our Advent preparations, let us celebrate our Blessed Mother!

December 8—The Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary

This is a holy day of obligation in 2022. It is our national feast day, with the United States under the patronage of the Blessed Virgin Mary, celebrating her Immaculate Conception. Since the Solemnity takes precedent over Memorials and Feasts, Masses the evening of Wednesday, December 7 (Memorial of Saint Ambrose) would be anticipatory Masses for the Immaculate Conception. There are not proper vigil Mass prayers and readings for this Solemnity.

December 10—Our Lady of Loreto

In 2019, Pope Francis ordered the inscription of Our Lady of Loreto into the General Roman Calendar as an optional Memorial on December 10 (the day her feast is celebrated in Loreto). While this is reflected in the ordo, the texts for Mass and the Liturgy of the Hours will not show up in their place in the Proper of Saints. Please visit the “Mass” section of the Office of Worship website for more information on how to celebrate this day.

December 12—Our Lady of Guadalupe

In 2022 December 12 is a Monday, which means this Feast can be celebrated on its proper day. While it cannot be transferred to Sunday, this feast for the patroness of all the Americas could be acknowledged on Sunday by including mention of it in the Prayer of the Faithful, using the Collect from Our Lady of Guadalupe to conclude the intercessions, or singing a Marian hymn, perhaps after Communion. O Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to you!

Readings for Christmas Eve and Christmas Day

Just a reminder—per the Lectionary for Mass, the readings for the proper Vigil Mass of the Nativity (#13 in the Lectionary) may be used for the Masses of Christmas Day, and, in fact, the readings from any of the Christmas Masses (#s 14-16) may be used at the other Christmas Masses depending on pastoral need. The preference would still seem to be to use the assigned readings at their assigned Masses since there is some continuity in their order (especially Mass at Midnight and Mass at Dawn), but they may be rearranged if it is pastorally helpful.

Book of Blessings and the Christmas Season

While the official liturgical season that is Christmas is relatively short, there are several liturgical blessings particular to the season that are good to recognize and celebrate. The Book of Blessings (BB) and Catholic Household Blessings and Prayers (HB) provide the content.

Blessing of Nativity: BB, chapter 48; HB, pg. 78—Probably the most obvious blessing is the blessing the nativity scene or manger, either at the parish or at home. Chapter 48 of BB provides the Order for blessing the nativity either in or out of Mass. It would seem to make sense that the nativity be blessed only once over the course of the Christmas liturgies, ideally at the first Mass of Christmas Eve or prior to it. However, it could also be revered with incense at any subsequent Christmas liturgies, perhaps during the incensing of the altar and cross at the Entrance. The shorter form in BB is the same as what is found in HB for blessing the home nativity.

Blessing of a Christmas Tree: BB, chapter 49; HB, pg. 78—Both BB and HB also provide a blessing for the Christmas tree (BB, chapter 49; HB, pg. 78). Trees set up in the church are not blessed in the context of Mass. At home or at church, the blessing may be celebrated during Liturgy of the Hours or a liturgy of the Word.

Blessing of Family: BB, chapter 1—The Feast is an appropriate time to recognize the sacredness of the family and ask for God’s special blessing upon them. BB chapter 1 (nos. 62-67) would be most useful for this.

Blessing of Homes During the Christmas Season: BB, chapter 50; HB, pg. 88—Epiphany is a traditional time when homes are blessed. One could also easily incorporate the Epiphany custom of marking the doors of the home with the year and the initials of the Magi (which is also an abbreviation for “May Christ bless this house” in Latin): 20+C+B+M+21. Texts for these blessings are also available online from the USCCB.

Advent Wreaths

Q.: What is the most appropriate place for the Advent wreath in the church?

A.: Advent wreaths, in terms of usage in churches, are a relatively recent development. This Germanic custom has become the customary reminder that the Advent season is upon us and stands as a visual reminder of our anticipation of the celebration of the Nativity at Christmas.

Traditionally, the wreath consists of three violet candles and one rose candle that correspond to the Sundays of Advent. However, one may use four candles of the same color. A new candle is then lit for every Sunday of Advent.

While there is no hard and fast rule for the placement of the wreath, there are some basic guidelines for its usage:

- ✘ It should be of a suitable size for the space – do not use a small tabletop wreath for your church, but also do not use an oppressively large wreath that overwhelms everything around it, either.
- ✘ It may be placed in the sanctuary, at the entrance of the church, in another visible location or devotional chapel in the church proper, or perhaps even suspended from the ceiling.
- ✘ Wherever it is placed, it should never obscure or interfere with the action of the Mass or other liturgies that are celebrated in the church. It also should not replace the altar candles or the Easter candle.

The blessing of the Advent wreath may take place on the first Sunday of Advent in the context of Mass, Liturgy of the Hours, or a Liturgy of the Word. Ideally, the wreath should only be blessed at one liturgy and not repeatedly blessed over the course of a weekend. For all subsequent uses of the Advent wreath, the appropriate candles may be lit either before Mass or other liturgy, or just before the Collect of Mass.

For more information on blessing, placement, and usage, please see Chapter 47 of the Book of Blessings.

Upcoming Holy Days of Obligation and Movable Feasts During the Christmas Season

December 25—Nativity of the Lord (Christmas)—It is always a holy day of obligation! Today is born our Savior, Christ the Lord!

December 30—The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph—This Feast is typically celebrated on the Sunday within the Octave of Christmas. However, Mary, Mother of God lands on a Sunday this time, meaning that the Holy Family is transferred to December 30. This would be a great day to bless the families of your community (see the “Book of Blessings in the Christmas Season” on page 3).

January 1—Octave Day of the Nativity of the Lord: Mary, the Holy Mother of God—It is a holy day of obligation in 2023. This is our diocesan feast day, with the diocese under the patronage of the Blessed Virgin Mary under the title “Mother of God.” Pray for the well-being of our diocese!

January 2—The Epiphany of the Lord—In the United States Epiphany is moved to the Sunday between January 2 and January 8, which in 2023 is January 8. Please note—in the Roman Missal, there are proper prayers to be used for Vigil Masses of Epiphany celebrated the evening of Saturday, January 1. The readings, however, remain the same for both days. There is also the tradition of announcing the dates Easter and the movable feasts for the year on Epiphany. The Missal (both English and Spanish) provide the text and music for this proclamation in the appendix. It is done after the Gospel by the deacon or by a cantor.

January 9—The Baptism of the Lord—This Feast is typically celebrated the Sunday after Epiphany, which in 2023 is January 9. As with any proper Feast, and since it is a Sunday, the Gloria is to be sung at this Mass. The Christmas season officially ends with the Baptism of the Lord. Fun fact: there is no First Sunday in Ordinary Time. Ordinary Time begins the Monday after the Baptism of the Lord.

Nativity of our Lord Jesus Christ & the Announcement of Easter and Movable Feasts

As you make your preparations for the celebrations of Christmas and Epiphany, you may wish to consider including the following practices on those days. Full texts for both of these are on pages 5-6.

Nativity of our Lord Jesus Christ

The announcement of the Solemnity of the Nativity of the Lord from the Roman Martyrology draws upon Sacred Scripture to declare in a formal way the birth of Christ. It begins with creation and relates the birth of the Lord to the major events and personages of sacred and secular history. The particular events contained in the announcement help pastorally to situate the birth of Jesus in the context of salvation history. The text may be chanted or recited, most appropriately on December 24, during the celebration of the Liturgy of the Hours. It may also be chanted or recited before the beginning of Christmas Mass during the Night.

Announcement of Easter and Movable Feasts

The proclamation of the date of Easter and the other moveable feasts on Epiphany dates from a time when calendars were not readily available. It was necessary to make known the date of Easter in advance, since many celebrations of the liturgical year depend on its date. The number of Sundays that follow Epiphany, the date of Ash Wednesday, and the number of Sundays that follow Pentecost are all computed in relation to Easter. Although calendars now give the dates for many years in advance, the Epiphany proclamation still has value as a reminder of the centrality of the resurrection of the Lord in the liturgical year and the importance of the great mysteries of faith which are celebrated each year. After the Gospel, a Deacon or cantor, in keeping with an ancient practice of Holy Church, announces from the ambo the moveable feasts of the current year according to the following text.

The musical notation for both of these can be found in Appendix I of the Roman Missal.

THE NATIVITY OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST
from the Roman Martyrology

The twenty-fifth day of December, when ages beyond number had run their course

from the creation of the world,

when God in the beginning created heaven and earth,
and formed man in his own likeness;

when century upon century had passed since the Almighty set his bow in the clouds after the Great Flood,
as a sign of covenant and peace;

in the twenty-first century since Abraham, our father in faith, came out of Ur of the Chaldees;

in the thirteenth century since the People of Israel were led by Moses in the Exodus from Egypt;

around the thousandth year since David was anointed King;

in the sixty-fifth week of the prophecy of Daniel;

in the one hundred and ninety-fourth Olympiad;

in the year seven hundred and fifty-two since the foundation of the City of Rome;

in the forty-second year of the reign of Caesar Octavian Augustus,
the whole world being at peace,

JESUS CHRIST, eternal God and Son of the eternal Father, desiring to consecrate the world by his most loving presence,
was conceived by the Holy Spirit,

and when nine months had passed since his conception,
was born of the Virgin Mary in Bethlehem of Judah,
and was made man:

The Nativity of Our Lord Jesus Christ according to the flesh.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT OF EASTER AND THE MOVABLE FEASTS
for Epiphany 2023

Know, dear brethren (brothers and sisters), that, as we have rejoiced at the Nativity of our Lord Jesus Christ,
so by leave of God's mercy
we announce to you also the joy of his Resurrection, who is our Savior.

On the twenty-second day of February will fall Ash Wednesday, and the beginning of the fast of the most sacred Lenten season.

On the ninth day of April you will celebrate with joy Easter Day, the Paschal feast of our Lord Jesus Christ.

On the twenty-first day of May will be the Ascension of our Lord Jesus Christ.

On the twenty-eighth day of May, the feast of Pentecost.

On the eleventh day of June, the feast of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ.

On the third day of December, the First Sunday of the Advent of our Lord Jesus Christ, to whom is honor and glory for ever and ever.

Amen.
